THEY SAY

Look out for the jack of clubs.
He is better known as a political tramp.
Champ Clark gave him a trashing but accepted a bribe not to prosecute him.

He has been without visible means of support for 20 years.
He carries a cane and holds up everybody he meets.

The republicans will make a strong fight for the next house.

Be truthful and tell only what you know.

Be what you seem to be and nothing more.

It is best not to go to places where you are not wanted.

The white trustees ought to take hold of the colored schools.

The colored trustees haven't got the temerity to make the necessary changes.

It is the great man who does great deeds.

Speak boldly of what you think.

The negro can expect but little from a white Maryland republican.

You should speak the truth always.

Editor Fortune of the New York Age means well, but he lacks the element of leadership.

Right is bound to prevail.

Look out for it! It wears a cane.

It has no name, and a very little shape.

The greatest man in town is the one who has a silent tongue.

Judge Kimball's law applies to political tramps.

Common people will endeavor to place their superiors on equality with them.

A person who is pure will not suspect other people of evil doing.

It is the treacherous man you must watch.

The republican party will do its duty some day.

The colored man must be independent in politics.

Why should a man be threatened with decapitation for exercising his opinion?

We dislike people because others do.

Our trustees lack nerve.

The white trustees will be compelled to take hold of the colored schools.

The people are becoming disgusted.

There should be no politics in our schools.

Politics in 1900 will tell a sweet story.

The police Court is still at the same old stand.

Some people will tell what they know and what they don't know.

A coward will not sign his name to charges.

He will talk behind your back.

It is the noble man who does noble deeds.

Some preachers carry two faces.

It is about time that this city is rid of a few of them.

Tramps go West some times.

Street corner loafers should be arrested.

Let the people in this city ask for suffrage.

Let us have a representative republican to represent the District republicans in the National Republican Convention.

A political tramp whose association is with the demi monde, is advocating school reforms.

What do you think of it?

A man whose associates are in the lowest dives in the Division should cease attempting to black mail honest people.

It is the guilty who attempts to degrade the innocent.

Do you know what the world is coming to?

Libertines are discussing morality in the colored public schools.

Style, Fit and Workmanship GUARANTEED.

VIRGINIA POLITICS.

The withdrawal of T. L. Jones, Esq., from the congressional race in Virginia augurs well for the republican party. It demonstrates the loyalty of Mr. Jones as well as the sound republicanism of Mr. Thorp. Mr. Thorp has not been in Congress long but he has been particularly active in his efforts to provide for his immediate constituency. He has been instrumental in the appointment of a large number of colored men to office and shows a determination to continue the good work. Probably the strongest reason that prompted Mr. Jones to withdraw was the fact that the opposition to Mr. Thorp was organized and conducted for the purpose of preventing the election of a republican Congressman from Virginia. As is the case in more than one southern State, there are a few white men who on account of their ability to work up presidential delegations have been accorded the federal patronage of those States, in the absence of a republican congressman. This condition has obtained so long that these would-be leaders have come to regard the privilege of dictating appointments as belonging to them and they will not give up without a struggle. Of course it is to their advantage to oppose Mr. Thorp or any body else who might be in a position to contravene their privilege. Mr. Thorp is a gentleman who has done his full duty toward his constituency and will contend for his rights as the representative of the party in his State.

Mr. Jones was made aware of the machinations of the enemy and would not consent to be their tool. That Mr. Thorp will receive the entire support of the colored republicans of his district goes without saying. If he does not receive the support of the white republicans who have sought to defeat his nomination, the responsibility will be with them and not with the colored voters. We confidently predict Mr. Thorp's election and the early downfall of those would-be white leaders who for their own sake would prevent the election of a republican to Congress.

The exhibition that the democrats of the South are making of themselves fully demonstrates the importance and necessity of electing a republican House of Representatives and the continuance of the republican party in power. Has the democratic party in the South presented such a record that will warrant colored men to vote that ticket? Colored men should be careful how they cast their vote for the enemy of good government and human liberty. The record of the democratic party is opposition to expansion or any measure that would tend to elevate and extend our territory.

Mr. W. H. Jackson of the 6th Auditor's office will leave the city for Indiana next week.

The attention of the readers of the BEE is called to a report on the condition of the branches of the industrial department in our public schools. If the conditions are as they appear in the BEE, they should be investigated.

DRAWING THE COLOR LINE.

Col. Beriah Wilkins, of the Post is absent in Paris and the junior editor is rattling around in the editorial chair. Mr. Wilkins hails from Ohio; but this young Cassius we are informed, comes from Louisiana. No doubt his parents were slaveholders before the war. He has oftentimes witnessed the beating, whipping and maiming of negroes. He has seen them sold upon the auction block. He has seen them chained together by the hundreds and marched away at the crack of the bull-whip of the overseer. He probably owes his education to the unrequited toil of black men and women. He probably had a "black mamma." Therefore we were not in the least surprised when he fired off his editorial on the situation in North Carolina in which he sides with the democrats in drawing the color line and their wicked and barefaced endeavor to deprive the colored citizen of that State of their right of suffrage.

This young man has trained in that school of philosophy which teaches that "might makes right." He is eminently fitted for the scenes of blood and carnage which he encourages in North Carolina and nothing would please him better than the news that hundreds of colored men, women and children had been slain on election day and that the pious (?) noble (?) christian (?) democracy had thereby secured the complete control of the political machinery of the State.

Think of it! Right here at the capital of the nation, under the shadow of the goddess of liberty, at the closing of the 19th century, in the face of our grand achievements in the war with Spain—a war in which white and black men fought side by side for the flag—there lives a man, dignified by the title of editor, who boldly advocates the perpetration of the crime of treason! This young man has evidently forgotten his history. It was just such inflammatory utterances as these which helped to bring on the late civil war; and the overturning of the constitution in the States of Mississippi and South Carolina and the avowed attempt to do the same thing in North Carolina is but history repeating itself.

There is an American conscience. It is strong at the North. It needs only to be awakened, to see its duty and to act. The numerous murders of colored men at the South is but the carrying out of deep laid plan to gain in peace what was lost in war. It will be the duty of all lovers of liberty and justice to inaugurate a campaign throughout the North, after the November election, the purpose of which will be to arouse the masses and point out to them the depth to which the South is going in order to reduce the late bondmen to a condition worse than slavery.

That the democrats of North Carolina will carry out their threat to murder colored voters no one doubts. There is no use to mince words when dealing with the negro hating southerner. He hates and despises the black man or woman who knows their rights and attempts to exercise them.

Our advice to the colored voter of the State is to go to polls and vote at all hazards on the 8th of November. If they are driven away from the voting places and the governor proves powerless to protect them it will be a matter for Congress to settle. Then the following campaign throughout the North and West will be beset by a return of what the democrats are pleased to term the "bloody shirt." But it will help to fire the northern heart and speed on the time when the liberty loving people of this country will settle this butchery of negroes for all time to come.

WANTED—Several trustworthy persons in this State to manage our business in their own and near by counties. It is mainly office work conducted at home. NEW YORK ELECTION.

Much speculation has been indulged in as to the result of the New York elections. New York is a large State and contains over a million voters. Mr. Roosevelt may be in some doubt as to how white voters will act, but we think he does not lie abed at nights worrying over the probable action of the colored voters. Mr. Roosevelt has done what was in his power to protect the young colored ladies who were unjustly turned out of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, but he was powerless in the presence of the Secretary of the Treasury who was opposed to having colored ladies in his department. Unless all signs fail Mr. Roosevelt will be the next governor of New York and the colored voter will be pleased.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK.

There is no man who has done more active service for the republican party than chairman Babcock. His extensive acquaintance with men of political weight has made him a power and an able judge as to the outcome of elections. He is positively without color prejudice. In his treatment of men he calculates upon the worth and not the color and acts accordingly.

A FEMALE EMBALMER.

THE FIRST IN THE HISTORY OF WASHINGTON. MADAM RUBY H. DABNEY GETS A DIPLOMA.

One of the most important professions in this country is an embalmer. Not since the establishment of the profession has there been, in this city, a female embalmer. Funeral director Mr. James H. Dabney who has one of the best and perhaps the oldest established businesses in this city, who always has an eye to business, conceived the idea of placing in his establishment and business a female embalmer, in the person of his wife,

Madam Ruby H. Dabney, who was born in Montgomery County Md., in 1872 and came to this city when quite a child. She attended the public schools of this city and also attended a private school in this city. (She is a lady of refinement and is no doubt one of the best informed and one of the most business-like women in the city. Madam Dabney attended the Massachusetts College of Embalming of Boston from which she graduated and received the following diploma:

MASSACHUSETTS,
COLLEGE OF EMBALMING
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

This is to certify that Ruby H. Dabney has attended a course of lectures and demonstrations, at the Massachusetts College of Embalming and has qualified herself for embalming and preserving the dead and received instructions in sanitation, disinfection and contagion.

In witness thereof this Diploma has been issued.
A. Johnson Dodge,
Lecturer Demonstrator;
George B. Dodge,
President,
A. D. Parson,
Secretary.

Mrs. Dabney is to be congratulated and she has filled a long felt want in this city and country.

As the mouth-piece and exponent of an institution of great magnitude, the Christian Recorder is a very tame affair; owing, probably to the fact that it is published in Philadelphia.

Of the full regiment comprising the 24th Infantry, (colored) who went to battle at San Juan, some thing over 300 survived, over 600 being either killed outright or mortally wounded. What an awful sacrifice for a flag which means liberty for the white man only.

Mr. O. L. Grant of Middleburg, Va., is in the city, stopping at 1519 Pierce street northwest.

LAWYER JONES RETIRES.

PARTY SUCCESS ABOVE PERSONAL AMBITION.

An Appeal to Fourth (Va.) District Republicans to Support Congressman Thorp.

AN ADDRESS DELIVERED BY MR. JONES SATURDAY.—NO LONGER IN THE FIELD.

Hon. R. T. Thorp, of the Fourth Virginia District, was in the city on last Saturday. He and Lawyer Jones had an interview with the Congressional Committee in company with Editor W. Calvin Chase of the BEE. After some deliberation Mr. Jones decided that he would withdraw his claims as a candidate for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District of Virginia. Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Jones' name appears on the official ballot, he urges his friends and the republicans of his district to vote for Mr. Thorp. The address is as follows:

Washington, D. C., Oct. 22, 1898.
To the Republican voters of the Fourth Congressional District of Virginia:

It is well known to you that I was a candidate for the republican nomination for Congress in our district, and sought the nomination at the Chase City Convention. The delegates to that convention divided and organized two conventions, one nominating me; the other nominating Hon. R. T. Thorp.

The Republican Party is far greater than either of us. The maintenance of its ascendancy is of more importance than the success of any individual. The question as to who is the regular and legal nominee of our party has been submitted to our highest party authorities. The National Congressional Committee has decided that the Hon. R. T. Thorp is the regular legal nominee for Congress. I have withdrawn, and do now retire from the race for Congress, and I call upon all true republicans, especially upon those who have heretofore favored my candidacy, to go to the polls on November 8, 1898, and cast their ballots for the Hon. R. T. Thorp, the regular and legal nominee for Congress in our district. While my name will necessarily appear upon the official ballot—it being now too late to prevent this—I trust you will not vote for me. By so doing you will simply aid the democratic candidate.

Very respectfully,
THOMAS L. JONES.
I, William Calvin Chase, a notary public in and for the District of Columbia, acknowledge the above to be the signature of Thomas L. Jones.
W. CALVIN CHASE,
Notary Public.

Hon. R. T. Thorp, the republican nominee for Congress in the 4th district of Virginia was born in Granville County North Carolina, educated at the University of Virginia, where he took both an academic and law course. He graduated with the degree of B. L., and was awarded the Jefferson Society medal of the Jefferson Society after a memorable and heated contest. Mr. Thorp removed to Virginia before attaining his majority, and soon afterwards began the practice of law at Boydton, the county seat of weeklenburg County, where he has resided ever since. He soon took high stand at the bar, and was appointed by the court Commonwealth's attorney, a position which he held for eighteen consecutive years.

In 1894 while holding this office, he took strong grounds in favor of having a republican candidate nominated for Congress. This did not meet the entire approval of the organization. Though the district was known to be overwhelmingly republican, it was deemed useless to make a fight under the partisan election law passed by a democratic legislature and the infamous methods resorted to by that party in many places in the district. At the republican convention held at Burkeville in August 1894, he was nominated by acclamation for Congress. His democratic competitor was awarded the certificate of election; but the returns were successfully impeached in a contest, and Mr. Thorp was seated as a member of the 54th Congress by the unanimous vote of the House, upon the unanimous report of Elections Committee No. 3.

In 1896, he was again nominated for Congress, was again deprived of the certificate, and again successfully contested the election. He was seated as a member of the 55th Congress, of which he is now a member. By leave of the House Mr. Thorp argued his own case upon the floor in a speech of one hour, which electrified his friends. This speech was pronounced by many to have been one of the most eloquent and effective ever delivered by a republican upon the floor of Congress. It at once placed him in the forefront of the advocates of fair election laws and fair election methods.

Mr. Thorp is again the nominee of the republican party for Congress, and is conducting an active and aggressive campaign.

There was a controversy as to who was the regular nominee of the party, the convention having divided. This controversy has now been finally settled as will seen by the address of Hon. Thomas L. Jones, and Mr. Thorp is now accepted by all as the regular and only republican nominee for Congress in the 4th District of Virginia. With a united party, as there will now be in that district, Mr. Thorp's election is assured. He is a warm supporter of the Administration and his success will be regarded as a victory for the Administration.

DR. CURTIS' APPOINTMENT.

From the Springfield, (Ill.) Record

The selection of Dr. Curtis of Chicago as Surgeon-in-Chief of Freedmen's Hospital at Washington, D. C. was purely a civil service appointment and all the efforts by certain Congressmen of Chicago to impress the colored voters with statements to the contrary are misleading. The Record is willing to give credit where it is due and would take special delight in saying that Congressman Boutwell, Lorrimer, Mills, Mann or Belknap had something to do with the appointment of a colored constituent, but there is nothing to bear us out in the assertion. If our information counts for anything we are of the opinion that Senator T. C. Platt of New York State had about as much to do with the appointment of Dr. Curtis as anyone.

You are in error, Dr. Curtis appointment was and was not a civil service one. It was a civil service appointment from the fact he stood below the man who stood the highest on the list of eligibles, although he passed the examination. Notwithstanding the fact that he stood below some others on the list, it took political influence to have him appointed over those who stood higher than he did. This influence was the two distinguished Senators from the State of Illinois and the republican Congressmen. Had it not been for Congressional influence exerting itself, Dr. Curtis never would have been appointed. The gallant Senator Mason led the fight for Dr. Curtis.

If there was ever a carrion crow that should be set upon and driven away from the flock by its mates for its maudlin desire to be the first to sink its dirty beak into the nastiest portion of dead carcass it is the northern white man who goes South to live and, in his eagerness to be on good fellowship with the citizens in his new home, out-herod Herod in his persecution of the negro and leads the mobs at the lynching.

Admiral George Dewey is keeping an open eye in the Orient. When the German officer presumed to pass a little beyond his authority Dewey made him shiny on his own side. Until recently that little act was enough to dissuade others from dipping in where they had no business. The other day the rebels thought that they would disobey George. The latest is that he gave them a wholesome spanking and left them to descend upon the text "the way of the transgressor is hard."

There is considerable stir in political circles. Both parties are waging vigorous warfare for the old flag and an appropriation. The great stump orators are doing their best at crimination and recrimination. But the most effective orator of them all is President McKinley. Without ostentation he is dealing out great chunks of wisdom and dispassionately and successfully cleaning the political atmosphere. The campaign book can't hold a light to the wisdom, patriotism and clean Americanism displayed by the President and when the day of reckoning comes it will be found that the Administration will be indorsed.

The attempt on the part of Spain to saddle on this country the Cuban debt is about as reasonable as that of the ex-slave holder in claiming indemnity for the loss of slaves. The whole Cuban debt was contracted for the purpose of riveting more securely the chains of serfdom on the Cubans and of filling the pockets of the indolent and haughty castilian. American self-respect as well as interest dictate nothing like assuming the debt.

If some of our busy bodies about town who have constituted themselves a smelling committee on our schools would clear their own skirts of the smell of smoke it would smack more propriety.

SCHOOL OF PRINTING.

We would respectfully call our readers' attention to a new field of labor that THE BEE has inaugurated at its office, 1109 I street, N. W.—a School of Printing for colored youths. It is the intention of the management that any who may avail themselves of the advantages of this school, shall receive a complete practical training in the art of printing in all its branches. The instructions will be under the personal supervision of Mr. Chase, member of the Typographical Union of this city, and who is without doubt among the best all-round printers in the country. Our facilities will be augmented by an entire new printing outfit, including all the latest styles of type, job presses and cylinder press, which will give pupils a chance to be up-to-date in the trade. In this connection we would ask our patrons to send in their orders for job work of any kind, as we will now be able to fill all orders from the smallest visiting card to the largest poster, and promise that our prices and work will compare favorably with those of any firm in the city.

Any young man desiring a trade will do well to write us for terms, etc., or call at this office and look over the establishment. The school will open on July 26th, and those desiring tuition will do well to inquire at once, as only a limited number can of necessity be accommodated. For information, terms, etc., Address, W. Calvin Chase, Manager Bee School of Printing.

Thanking you for past favors, and feeling assured of your support in this new endeavor, we are yours,

THE BEE.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby curing the foundation of disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials to cure. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

MAJOR LYNCH IN TOWN.

Major John R. Lynch of Mississippi, is in the city on a visit. He paid a visit to the President this week and had a lengthy interview with him. In conversation with a representative of the Bee, Maj. Lynch, among other things said: Referring to the late unpleasantness with the Texas troops said that only one man refused to take his pay from him. That when it was thought that the whole regiment would rebel Mr. Lynch gave the commanding officers to understand that he proposed to pay off his troops and if they didn't accept their pay no money at all would be paid to them. When Major Lynch was told that some one may do him bodily harm he informed the commanding officer that he was not afraid of that. All he wanted was for the orders to be given to pay off and he would be responsible for the results. Major Lynch paid the men off and no doubt they were convinced that Major Lynch was a man.

CITY BREVITIES.

Several Washingtonians have gone to New York.
The Bethel Literary opened on Tuesday night.
Mr. George W. Stewart will read a paper before the Union Wesley Lyceum, October 31st.
Prof. Robert H. Terrell will assume charge of the High School November 1st.
The many friends of Miss Marie E. Smith will be sorry to hear of her sudden illness. Miss Smith was taken ill immediately after her return home and has been confined to the house 14 days. It is hoped that she may soon recover.

A host of friends gathered at the Zion Baptist church on Thursday Oct. 20, to pay a last tribute of respect to Miss Arena E. Brooks, who was for four years a proficient teacher in the public schools of this city. Miss Brooks was also useful along other lines, as was shown in the resolutions from the Sunday school and True Reformers. At the request of Miss Brooks, four of her friends, Misses Grimshaw, Brooks, Johnson and Howard, acted as honorary pall-bearers and arrayed in spotless white they preceded the funeral procession down the aisle. The floral tributes were many and beautiful, all attesting to the sterling worth of this young lady whose early death is lamented by those among whom she lived and moved from day today.

SONG SERVICE.

A real Washington audience filled the auditorium of the Metropolitan church on Sunday evening to listen to the song service of the choir, under the leadership of our well-known leader, Prof. J. T. Layton.
Too much cannot be said of the manner in which the choruses were rendered. Miss Morgan and Mr. Payne though quite young acquitted themselves quite creditably. Miss Patterson sang exceptionally well and with a great deal of expression. Madam Selika, who was one of the drawing cards, sang in her usual artistic manner and displayed a most perfect method. It goes without saying that Mr. Williams is always favorably received, but especially did he excel in the obligatory "God of Israel." Last but not least, Mr. Harry Burleigh sang in his inimitable style a solo which held the audience spell-bound, his cultivated voice as it fell on the ears of his enchanted hearers shall never be forgotten. After the last number, the audience left with happy hearts looking forward to the next song service which will probably be some time near Christmas.

DRAMATIC RECITAL.

On Tuesday evening last a small, but appreciative audience assembled in the Metropolitan church to listen to the dramatic recital given by Mr. Burroughs, a refined and scholarly gentleman who has recently studied in the Boston School of Expression. The entertainment was indeed a high class one and had it not been for the inclement weather, the church would have been filled. Mr. Burroughs was especially fine in acts 1st and 5th from Othello.

Prof. Braxton, organist of the church, rendered several pleasing selections on the organ. It is hoped that at an early date Mr. Burroughs will be heard under more favorable circumstances, as he well deserves a packed house.

REV. WISEMAN SURPRISED.

THE HOME OF JUDGE TANEY VISITED—No DISCRIMINATION—THE CHURCHES UNITED.
Dr. D. E. Wiseman, pastor of the Lutheran church paid a visit to Tarrytown last week and was invited to the German Reform church of that place to preach. This is the home of Judge Taney who declared that the "negro had no rights that a white man was bound to respect." The churches are all united on the color question so remarked Rev. Wiseman to the Bee. He spoke of the United Brethren and Presbyterian churches as being successful and void of prejudice. Dr. Wiseman spoke of Tarrytown being the home of Judge Taney and he was surprised to know that there was no prejudice there and especially in the churches against the colored people. His sermon was well received and the reception that was given him was more than a surprise. Rev. Wiseman is an eloquent speaker and a thorough race man. He spoke in the highest terms of the editor of the Carroll Record, Mr. P. B. Englar, a Lutheran and also a strong defender of the rights of the colored people.

AT THE THEATRES.

The Venetian Burlesquers, under the direction of Irwin Bros., will be the attraction at Kernans Lyceum Theatre next week, introducing the funniest comedians, most eccentric dancers, sweet singers, and twenty of the most beautiful costumed girls, making one of the most artistic combinations before the public, with the following star cast of famous entertainers, Newell and Schvetz, Mack and Howard, Ed Russell and Tillie Tylline, Sisters Caromonte, Harlan and Vost, Jennie Crawford, Rice and Eberlan, Winnie Richardsen, England's Queen of burlesque, and the versatile trio, Marshall, Sylvester and Weston.

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service. The "Royal Blue Line" service consists of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment. The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats. In another corner is a bookcase and stationery washstand. The room was designed for special comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when travelling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed. In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1.00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited" will leave Washington at 3.00 P. M., arriving New York at 8.10 P. M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then consist of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking

ADVANTAGE

BAILEY'S IMPROVED TRUSS.

It adjusts itself so perfectly to the rupture that it is impossible for it to become displaced. It permits the utmost freedom of motion with perfect safety. All uncomfortable and injurious steel spring pressure is avoided. The pad is held in place by woven bands, which retain an equal pressure in all positions of the body. It can be worn in bed, a great desideratum to the young as tending to a perfect cure. It is the only suitable truss for children and females. The proper amount of pressure can be brought to bear and maintained in any position without pinching or harm to the wearer. It will cure hernia if placed on the patient sufficiently early. Excepting umbilical, it is the best truss ever offered for all kinds of hernia. It is so perfect and comfortable in its adjustment that the patient in a short time forgets he is wearing it. (See the certificate of Mr. Daniel Johnson.) Sent postage paid to any address on receipt of price: $3 for single and $4 for double truss. In ordering, give location of hernia, right or left side, and measurement. Satisfaction given or money refunded when the truss is returned in good order. Address:

Pointer
ON THE SIDE

Essie:—By all means keep your family grievances at home. Family affairs do not interest well thinking people.

Lena:—You are too young to entertain young men. Girls in school have no time for society, that is, if they want to succeed.

Elsie:—I do not approve of children being governed by their older sisters or brothers. Such rearing has a tendency to make confusion. Of course there is an exception if the children have no parents.

S.E.:—No one should be governed by a preacher's actions. Do as he says and not as he does.

Robbie:—A man who disowns that he calls on a lady can surely have but little respect and no love for her. You are too quick to believe what is said to you.

Pauline:—Think not of the man's occupation. A laboring man oft times makes a better husband than a professional man.

Nellie:—You are entirely too lively for the position you hold. Educators are supposed to be models of perfection. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

Dora:—Your communication came too late for the last issue. I do not believe in spirits talking through mediums. Any one who is foolish enough to give their money to so-called mediums, they, the mediums, are perfectly right in taking it.

E.S.:—I am very glad you have disappointed your enemies by showing them how well you can live. But take my advice and don't step too high or else you may not be able to stand the fall. "There never was a horse so sure footed that he did not stumble."

Young ladies should not shake hands in the street, nor converse with each other on street corners. It looks just as unrefined as it would be for them to stand and converse with a man.

Patsy:—There is nothing in names. Some of the finest people I know have ugly names.

Jessie:—I am glad you succeeded. You have my best wishes for your success; a lady of your ability cannot do other than succeed.

Cori:—I do not approve of hasty marriages. Think well before you accept his hand.

Lucy:—Arrange your hair low in the back which is the latest fad. Pompadour with side bangs, that is, let hair roll back will be becoming to a slender face.

Norah:—A large person should never wear strips or checks as they make one look larger.

E.D.:—The person who is always singing his own praises does it because other people fail to see his good traits.

Lizzie:—I don't care for people who suspicion everybody and trust no one. We can not live without friends.

Laura:—A girl of seventeen summers and only in the sixth grade, would make better time studying the profession of trained nurse. No payment is required to enter a school for trained nurses. A good nurse can always demand from ten to twenty dollars per week.

O.E.:—Self pride is the first rudiment of home training.

Vary:—It is well for a person whose character is questionable to think you are conceited.

Catharine:—A sweet disposition is the leading quality in any one. You should cultivate your disposition.

R.R.:—Only silly people boast of their wealth. There are but few rich Afro-Americans.

Emma:—Don't be alarmed as it is only the dissatisfied person who is continually finding fault.

F.T.:—It is always best to do your duty notwithstanding what some other people may say.

Etta:—From what you say, your disposition will carry you through. Be upright, positive and honest.

L.T.:—Take my advice and not listen to what people may say about your friends. A person is never abused unless he is worthy of consideration. Unimportant objects are passed unnoticed.

S.E.:—You are not supposed to recognize one on the street whom you have met in a business way. Always resent a seeming insult or too much familiarity.

H.M.T.:—You should study the art of dressing. You should always look well in your outward appearance.

Ella:—Never express too much anxiety in anything. Let your deportment always be sedate.

Anna:—It is bad taste when at a soiree to dance with the same gentleman twice. Always obtain a new partner. Gossippers are always busy even in the ball room.

T.T.:—You should learn how to be a good house wife. Nothing is lovelier than a sweet house keeper.

O.T.:—Never go beyond your means. Don't brag about what you have and what you get. It shows bad rearing. You can always tell what a person is used to the moment you meet him.

School:—The colored public schools are not what they should be. It is not certain who is to blame. A committee will investigate the entire system.

SECRET ORDERS.

NEGRO FREE MASONS.

NON-RECOGNITION A QUESTION OF JURISDICTION.

With reference to the action of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Free Masons, in adopting a resolution recommending non-intercourse with the Grand Lodge of the State of Wash., on account of the action of the latter lodge in recognizing negro lodges, a prominent Mason yesterday said that several grand lodges had heretofore taken similar action, and that other grand lodges would probably do likewise. As a result of this action, he said no Mason belonging to a Washington lodge could be received as a visitor in any lodge outside of that State, and within the jurisdiction of any grand lodge which had thus severed fraternal relations with the Grand Lodge of Washington.

This step, he said, could not be based upon a drawing of the color line, but was one entirely of jurisdiction. Every grand lodge is sovereign within its jurisdiction, and therefore, no subordinate lodge, or any member thereof, is recognized, the charter of which does not emanate from the Grand Lodge. The negro lodge, it appears, originally secured charters from the Grand Orient of France, which latter body itself is not recognized by the grand lodges of the United States, of England and elsewhere. Consequently, a negro lodge holding a charter emanating from such a source, wherever located would be without the pale of the grand lodge of the jurisdiction where located.

The non-recognition of the Grand Orient of France springs from the abolition in that country of the Bible from the lodge rooms. Several years ago the grand master of Peru excluded the Bible, substituting the book of the constitution and the Grand Lodge of England and the grand lodges in this country immediately suspended fraternal relations. Recently the Grand Lodge of Peru has gone back to the Bible, and the relations have been resumed. It is conceded that the membership of the negro lodges is respectable; there are even fine bodies of Knights Templar among them, one negro templar, in fact, now holding a foreign consulship under President McKinley's appointment, but the whole question is one of jurisdiction, concerning which all grand lodges of Masons are exceedingly tenacious, so much so that a lodge chartered in Maryland by the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania would not be recognized or its members affiliated with.

Mrs. Robert Harrison, member of Robert Morris Chapter O. E. Star, died Tuesday Oct. 25, 1898. She was buried Thursday October 27, from Second Baptist church. The ceremonies of the order were performed at home of the deceased. Interment at
